

GENERAL INTERNSHIP

The American Civil Liberties Union of Michigan is seeking interns and volunteers. The ACLU is one of the nation's premiere defenders of civil rights and civil liberties. The ACLU's core program areas include: First Amendment, Equality Rights, Privacy, Due Process, and Racial Justice.

We are seeking students from a wide range of disciplines, including public policy, communications, political science, computer science, social work, and law. An internship with the ACLU provides students with a unique opportunity to work in our legal program, legislative program, communications program and development program. Specific projects include general legal intake, specific issues that arise in the state legislature, drafting brochures/flyers, and help in the organization of our annual dinner.

The ideal intern has a general familiarity with the American Civil Liberties Union, and general knowledge about the history of civil rights and constitutional law. To learn more about some of our ongoing projects, visit www.aclumich.org.
